Special Report . . .

CAN WE TALK? JUST WHAT IS THIS MEGA-REUNION?

This reunion is designed for everyone who has graduated from Daemen and in some cases former students who spent most of their college years here and consider this their school. It includes ALL years and will begin in the early afternoon on Friday, June 25 and continue through Sunday, June 27, 1993.

Anniversary years 53, 58, 63, 68, 73, 78, 83 and 88 will be honored at Saturday's dinner. The Distinguished Alumni Award will also be presented at that dinner.

This reunion has been in the planning stages for two years. The chairpersons and committee have put hours of effort into designing a well-rounded program, contacting alumni, updating addresses, etc.

The response to our Will you be there? flyer was impressive. See page 7 for a list of respondents who are very interested or definitely coming to the Mega-Reunion.

DID YOU KNOW...

Daemen Now Has A Masters Program?

A post-licensure graduate program in Physical Therapy has been approved by State Board of Regents for Daemen. Our area has no comparable program; it will focus upon practitioners who choose to take advanced courses and specialize in either orthopedics or general practice. The two-year program will commence in the Fall of 1993 with a class of twenty and be housed in our newly constructed Schenck Science building.

- Daemen College offers thirty-eight degree programs which are divided into four academic divisions: Business & Commerce, Fine & Performing Arts, Humanities & Social Sciences, and Natural & Health Sciences.

- This year's total enrollment is 1,707.

- Daemen College graduated its first class in 1952. Since then it has graduated 7,213 students 86% female and 14% male. Physical Therapy degrees have been awarded to 776 students.

- For the academic year 92-93, costs are:

Tuition	$7,950
Room & Board	4,150
College Fee	320
	$12,420

- There are 121 faculty members, and the student faculty ratio is 15:1.

- In addition to academic programs, Daemen has a Community Service Program, a Co-operative

President's Message

WOW! For those of you who know me personally, it may come as a shock to learn that I am speechless at this point during the year. It doesn't happen often!

The Daemen College Alumni Association has taken the organization to new heights. It has become a very active group of people with no limits to what they can accomplish. The active membership, which has doubled in size, has taken on projects of significant magnitude.

TWO THIRDS OF THE WAY THERE! Our Annual Alumni Drive, coupled with the Phonathon, was a big success. The over $15,000 raised will go toward the $25,000 required to refurbish the former Schenck Lounge into the ALUMNI LOUNGE! It will be a great tribute to past, present & future students who attend Daemen College. Without your contributions, this would not have been as successful. I personally Thank You! For those who have not yet contributed, we welcome your tax deductible contributions.

The Alumni Association's events have brought alums back to Daemen College. Reunion '92 was a huge success. Alums, young and younger, spent the day touring the campus, listening to lectures, and reminiscing about ol'times on campus. Just hearing names like "Trapper", Tony, Michelle, "Sinatra" and J.K. brought memories back to life. You won't want to miss MEGA-REUNION '93 set for June 25-27.

The Annual Children's Christmas Party was once again a wonderful way to share in the joys of the holidays. The children were entertained by Gonzo, the magician, and went home after a visit with and a gift from Santa. The toys donated were given to a needy organization in the Buffalo area. We were a part of making someone's holidays brighter!

The winter weather was softened by several workshops and activities sponsored by the Alumni Association. There has been a growing interest in workshops and the attendance has shown it. On November 11, a group from Daemen enjoyed watching the Sabres defeat the Boston Bruins and March 20 we took in a Bandits game.

The Daemen College Alumni Association is an organization that many alums are finding is a great way to become active again. As always, we welcome YOU and YOUR ideas. Our meetings are held the second Thursday of each month. Make plans to join us. If you cannot attend and would like to contribute in other ways, please call me at (716) 684-3547. I look forward to hearing from all of you!

Robert Ciepiela, '85
Alumni Association President

Alumni President Robert Ciepiela presented a plaque to John Wagner, General Manager of the Buffalo office of New York Life Insurance Co., in recognition of his community service. Wagner offered the use of his offices for two evenings to Daemen for the Alumni's Annual Fund phonathon. Alums and students gathered for the event which resulted in pledges exceeding $2000. Our thanks to John Wagner and New York Life Insurance Company.

Education Program, a Higher Education Opportunity Program and a Liberty Partnership Program.

- The 37 acre campus has 12 buildings and, in addition, 21 residence halls. The newest is a science building, Schenck Hall, which was financed in large part through a bequest from the estates of Irene & Edward J. Schenck.
- The Academic Resource Center is equipped with over 50 IBM, MacIntosh and Apple computers for student use.
- The Marian Library has over 130,000 volumes as well as a recreational reading collection. Other materials include more than 850 periodical subscriptions, audiovisual sets, videotapes, phonograph records and microfilm volumes. Each year about 3,000 volumes are added to support academic research requirements.

The Little Theatre has both new siding and windows. The seats have been replaced and the lobby has been spruced up with fresh paint, new carpeting and new drapes as well as a new bench and ticket counter.

The ongoing restoration of the residence halls includes new carpeting in Canavan Hall and replacement windows. Also, a laundry facility is being created on the first floor of each Campus Drive building.

The old phone operator station in the gym atrium has been converted into an Admission Office reception room.

Alumni Lounge Fundraiser

The alumni have pledged $25,000 to Daemen to be used to refurbish the lounge in Wick Center. The lounge will be rededicated and renamed, "The Alumni Lounge" at our reunion on June 26, '93.

In order to raise the money needed for our commitment, the alumni have initiated a number of "painless" fundraisers. Collecting Tops' register tapes is one of our efforts. Please assist us! We receive $1 for every $400 in register tapes. It won't take long to raise money, if you help. Thanks!

Sports News

Alex Nwora, Daemen College's all-time leading rebounder was named to NAIA (National Association of Intercollegiate Athletes), District 18, 1st Team, All District Team. Alex led the Warriors in scoring and rebounding, averaging 19.8 points per game and 11.6 rebounds per game. He is the Nation's 5th leading rebounder. He will be inducted into the College's Wall of Fame and is the 1st Warrior in history to score over 1500 points and grab over 1000 rebounds in his career. Alex will most likely continue his basketball career in Europe after graduating from Daemen's Graphic Design Program.

Teammate Mario Torres was named 2nd Team, All District. Mario is a junior Business major who averaged 12.9 points per game as well as 9 rebounds per game.

Video Tape of Daemen

A video tape is being offered for $6.50 to anyone who would enjoy viewing today's campus. This will afford an opportunity to preview Daemen today, dust off memories, and/or prepare for attendance at the Mega-Reunion. Make check payable to Daemen College Alumni Association and order through the Alumni Office.

Perfect P.T. Score

Congratulations to Suzanne Reomocean, '92, who scored 175 on the July '92 Physical Therapy licensing exam.

Suzanne is continuing her education at Temple University where she will pursue an advanced masters in Neurology. At the present time, she is employed at Temple University Hospital.

Kudos to the our entire group of '92 Physical Therapy graduates. Daemen had a 100% pass rate for the examination.

Alumni Directory to be Published

Finding a former classmate can be just like looking for the proverbial "needle in a haystack," but not anymore. Soon an impressive directory of our great alumni will be available to help you locate your old friends.

The new Daemen College Alumni Directory, scheduled for release in May/June 1994, will be the most up-to-date and complete reference on over 6,400 Daemen College alumni ever compiled! This comprehensive volume will include current name, address and phone number, academic data plus business information (if applicable), bound into a classic, library-quality edition.

The Alumni Office has contracted the prestigious Bernard C. Harris Publishing Company, Inc. to produce our directory. Harris will soon begin researching and compiling information to be printed in the directory by mailing a questionnaire to each alum. If you prefer not to be listed in the directory, please contact the Alumni Office in writing as soon as possible.

The new Daemen College Alumni Directory will soon make finding a Daemen College graduate as easy as opening a book. Look for more details on the project in future issues.

Reunion '92

October 2, 1992 was the date that approximately 150 alumni gathered to share memories and honor the anniversary years: '52, '57, '62, '67, '72, '77, '82 and '87. The reunion was chaired by Karen Cuddy Miller and her husband, Alan Miller.

The day began with a Mass and champagne brunch. Sr. M. Angela Canavan gave a beautiful invocation and Dr. Thomas J. Ahern, Education Department Chairman, spoke to the alumni. Later in the afternoon, twenty-five faculty members joined the alumni at a cocktail party which preceded the dinner.

The dinner was held in Wick Social Room which was decorated with bouquets of blue and white balloons provided by Pam Barwell Schenkel. A "No Charge" raffle of memorabilia and yearbooks from the anniversary classes was held for the second year; it was great fun and will be continued each year as part of the reunion program. Dean Charles J. Reedy gave a "State of the College" address and our main speaker, Susan D. Edwards, Director of Institutional Advancement, spoke about the future of our school.

1992 Distinguished Alumni Award

by Deborah R. Hoffmann

Darleen Pickering Hummert, class of 1967, is the recipient of the 1992 Distinguished Alumni Award. Darleen is currently an Associate at the Arts Council in Buffalo and Erie County where she is administrator for the Regrant Program and works on advocacy for the arts as well as public relations for the Arts Council. Darleen received her bachelors degree in psychology, with a minor in theatre, from Daemen (RHC) as well as a masters degree in theatre arts from Illinois State University. A Buffalo native and former Assistant to Chairman/Senior Staff Assistant in the Department of Theatre and Dance at the University at Buffalo, Darleen is a respected educator and arts administrator as well as a gifted and professional actor, playwright and director.

Darleen is founder and artistic director of Theatre for Change Company, dedicated to performing plays, improvisations and workshops dealing with critical issues such as family violence. Her involvement as Director of Haven House, a shelter for battered women and children in Buffalo, is a natural fit wherein she was commissioned to create a play involving domestic violence. The result was "Father Knows Best," a forty-five minute domestic awareness drama written and directed by Darleen, a performance available to any group or organization.

In 1991, Darleen was presented with the Professional Staff Senate Award by the University at Buffalo in recognition of her exceptional educational and civic contributions to the university and the Western New York community.

In light of her many contributions to the community, her talent and professional successes, it is a great pleasure to congratulate Darleen Pickering Hummert as the Daemen College distinguished alumna for 1992.

Mega-Reunion Housing Reservations

Reservations are on a first come, first served basis. We have room for 400 to sleep on campus. There will be some dorms reserved for fraternities and sororities; be sure to indicate your affiliation, if you choose to stay in one of those dorms. If you have special lodging needs, we must be made aware of those needs as early as possible. The Marriott, Red Roof Inn and Lord Amherst have agreed to hold a block of rooms for alums who choose to stay in a nearby motel.

Perhaps alums who live in the area would have room in their homes to host out-of-town alums. Call 839-8555 to add your name to our supplemental housing list or invite one of your former classmates to stay with you. (Continued on page 16.)

Lost Alumni

The anniversary years 53, 58, 63, 68, 73, 78, 83, 88 will be honored at our Mega-Reunion & we are in the process of mailing invitations. We have not been advised of address changes for the following alumni and request your help in finding them. Please call (716) 839-8212, use the Class Notes tear-off, or write to the Alumni Office with updated addresses and phone numbers.

SUSAN POMINVILLE DOWELL,
Class of '74

"Commit to a vision, communicate it passionately, and defend it vociferously." Words of advice that Susan offered to her associates in the American Health Information Management Association (AHIMA) in her March President's message & published in their monthly, "Journal of AHIMA."

If any one word could describe Susan Dowell, "visionary" is the one. She just completed two years as AHIMA President-Elect and President, having led her colleagues, Medical Records administrators and professionals, through a searing analysis and re-definition of their roles in the health care industry. This revolution of thought and purpose was reflected in their organization name change — they were formerly the American Medical Record Association. It was also the fruition of Susan's vision and strategic plan for re-positioning the Medical Records' profession in the Age of Information and its critical role as America challenges how health care is delivered and paid for in the 21st century.

But enough of this corporate speak — what about the person — Susan Dowell? From her RHC days as Student Governing Board chairman to her current position as Vice-President of Medicus Systems Corp., in Evanston, IL., Susan remains the older sister/confidant ready to enable those in her professional or family circle to sort out their challenges and excel. Her non-threatening, inclusive leadership style has been the secret of her success, and nothing is ever the same about any person or organization she has touched. She feels change is the natural order of life — "you can embrace it and manage it." Though she's already getting by on five hours sleep a night, she's generally ready to celebrate your successes with you. She is the wife of Doug Dowell, whom she met at the infamous Shenanigan's in Orchard Park, and mother of Evan Dowell, almost 4 years old. Her Medicus and AHIMA responsibilities regularly take her all over the country and since graduation, she has lived in Buffalo, St. Louis, Seattle and for the last five years in Chicago.

Susan credits her career focus to sound beginnings in the Medical Records Administration program at RHC/Daemen. She furthered her education at the University of Washington, in Seattle, in their executive MBA program. Susan's personal vision includes being an agent of change and a volunteer, both of which are significantly fulfilled through her work with AHIMA. In another recent "President's Message," she exhorted her colleagues to "find a volunteer pace that is right," and make true commitments to their profession and community. The time commitment she has made to AHIMA these last two years has been substantial, all of it volunteer and above and beyond her considerable responsibilities at Medicus, not to mention as wife and mother. She credits Doug for urging her to accept the call from AHIMA, and for continuing to cheer her success.

(This profile was written by Cecilia Matta '74, Susan's college roommate and friend of 22 years)

MARY KAY POPPENBERG,
Class of '61

Dynamo is the word to best describe Mary C. Poppenberg, the 1992 PSRA Renaissance Communicator of the Year (PSRA standing for Pittsburgh Chapter of the Public Relations Society of America.)

In 1987, Mary Kay became President of the Greater Pittsburgh Office of Promotion, a private, non-profit organization dedicated to changing the outdated image of Pittsburgh. Her professionalism, consensus-building abilities and unflagging energy turned the office from a three person staff in 1987 to an eight-person operation in 1992. Mary Kay was also the driving force in lobbying the state government for seed money to start the Pittsburgh Film Office which opened as a division of the Office of Promotion in 1990.

Prior to joining the Office of Promotion, Mary Kay served for five years as Director of public relations and two years as a director of marketing and business enterprises for The Carnegie. She was President for ten years of a consumer products company, which she previously co-founded, balancing work and motherhood while raising four children.

A Buffalo native, Mary Kay graduated from Daemen College in 1961 with a bachelor of arts degree in English language and literature and with a minor in Philosophy. She is a Year 111 graduate of Leadership Pittsburgh, a prestigious year-long program of education for community leaders. Mary Kay is also a graduate of the Museum Management Institute at the University of California at Berkeley.

In addition to her current duties at the Office of Promotion, Mary Kay is a board director of the Society for Contemporary Crafts, Phipps Conservatory, Leadership Pittsburgh, Three Rivers Area Labor Management Committee and the World Trade Center/Pittsburgh. She is also a member of PRSA, Pittsburgh Media Group, Junior League of Pittsburgh, the Executive Women's Council and Meeting Planners International.

Mary Kay was named a "Real Pittsburgher" by Pittsburgh Magazine in 1989 and "Someone to Watch in Communications" by the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette. In 1988, she received two PRSA Renaissance Awards and an IABC Golden Triangle Award for work done at the Office of Promotion.

Mary Kay lives in Sewickley with her husband, Oliver. She has four children between the ages of 25-30. Her parents, Al and Louise Pepe, live in Amherst. (Thanks to her sister, Patti Pepe Schnitter, class of '67, for keeping us posted.)

Learning doesn't end when you receive your diploma and shake the president's hand. "Education" continues throughout life, through worksite training, professional conferences, mentoring, volunteer training and continuing education. In support of this broader concept of education, Daemen College for many years, has been offering its campus to the community.

With its excellent facilities, relaxed atmosphere, personable staff, and reasonable costs, Daemen College is a perfect setting to enhance the "educational" nature of programs. Year-round, the campus has been used by many outside organizations as the site of educational forums, training sessions and conferences.

Daemen College has developed a solid reputation as an excellent spot for meetings and small conferences (up to 450 people). Since the establishment of a Conference Office in 1982, under the direction of the Business Office, community groups have been encouraged to meet at Daemen. Contacts with social, educational, business and religious organizations have brought meetings to campus and provided new sources of revenue for the college.

Residential conferences are scheduled primarily in the summer months, from mid-May to mid-August, when on-campus housing is available. Lodging is provided in Canavan Hall or in Campus Drive apartments. Meal service and meetings are in Wick Center.

As one of the most unique programs each summer, Elderhostel has been offered at Daemen College since 1984. Elderhostel is a week-long, residential, academically-oriented program for anyone over 60. This year, in its tenth summer at Daemen, Elderhostel is scheduled during the weeks of June 6-12, July 4-10, and August 1-7, 1993. Each Elderhostel will attract about 45 seniors from all across the U.S., with courses taught by some of the finest faculty members at Daemen. Since its very modest beginnings, Elderhostel is now offered at over 1,800 locations nationally and internationally and is coordinated through the national office in Boston.

Outside the WNY region, there continues to be a strong interest nationwide in using college and university campuses to host conferences. Daemen College is listed in national publications such as the Guide to Conferencing on Campus. Through the Guide, Daemen regularly receives referrals regarding potential conferences.

It's easy to plan a conference at Daemen, because the first and main contact is with the Conference Office in Wick Center. Through the assistance of Conference Office staff, all arrangements for off-campus groups are coordinated. Arrangements may include: food services (including cafeteria line meals, coffee breaks, banquets, picnics, "snack breaks," meeting room arrangements, audiovisual needs, registration set-ups, lodging on campus (summer only), extra security services, parking, billing, maps and promotional information about the Daemen campus, and information on WNY area attractions.

If you belong to a business, professional, or social organization or are on the planning committee for an educational program . . . suggest Daemen College as your conference site and decide to hold your next meeting on campus. For information, contact Margene W. Weiss, Conference Director, Conference Office, Daemen College, 4380 Main Street, Amherst, New York at (716) 839-8253.

Margene W. Weiss, MA, was appointed Conference Director in January 1992. She was Program Coordinator for Network in Aging of WNY, Inc., affiliated with SUNY Buffalo. Past positions include Director of Conferences for West Virginia University, Assistant Director of Medical Conferences for University of Kansas School of Medicine-Wichita, Director of New Student Orientation Programs for Pennsylvania State University, and Director of Henderson Residence College at University of North Carolina - Chapel Hill.

Alumni Services Department of CO-OP & Career Development

The Department of CO-OP and Career Development provides unlimited service for Daemen College Alumni in meeting their career needs. Listed below are the services available and the procedures for utilizing them.

Graduate Survey Cooperative Education & Career Development

by Laurie A. Clayton, Director

Daemen College graduated 245 students in May of 1992. Six months later, a survey assessed the current status of the graduates with respect to employment, relationship between jobs and academic major, how jobs were found, salaries and advanced study. Presented here are the survey results, obtained from 222 (91%) of the new graduates. The remaining alumni were unable to be contacted by mail or phone.

After six months, 80% had found full-time employment. Another 13% were working part time. Most of the graduates (88%) feel that their work is directly or somewhat related to their academic major.

The average yearly income of all respondents with full-time jobs is $23,685. By Division, graduates who found full-time employment earn an average yearly income of: Division of Arts - $17,750, Division of Business and Commerce - $17,500, Division of Humanities and Social Sciences - $16,978, and Division of Natural Science - $25,984.

Compared to the class of 1991, there was an increase in the number of graduates pursuing advanced study (6% in 1991, 10% in 1992). The percentage of graduates who have found full-time employment also increased slightly, from 78% in 1991 to 80% in 1992. The percentage of graduates who have found part time jobs decreased from 18% in 1991 to 13% in 1992.

The River Why
by David James Duncan
(Bantam Press, New York, NY) 1985

The River Why, is a philosophical novel by David James Duncan. Thoreau had his woods; Duncan had his river. What his river meant to him and the lessons he learned provokes our laughter and teases our tears and fears. His commonplace hero, Gus, will take you along with him on his extraordinary voyage of self-discovery. As you journey with Gus up and down his fishing trip, you will drag in the strangest thoughts and meet the most remarkable critters. Descartes, who is described by Duncan as "a ghostly-looking but handsome mongrel graced with an unnerving pair of eyes," wills to be human as surely as our immediate goal is divinity. There is high and low purpose to Duncan's writing; he lets us in on his why in as clever and pleasant a manner as I have read in quite some time. One suspects that this book, like all books, is about the author, a lifelong Oregon resident who learned to read and fish in 1957.

Gayle Koscelski English

Winds of Fate
Winds of Change
by Mercedes Lackey
(DAW Books, New York, NY) 1991

These two novels mark a return for Mercedes Lackey to her epic series about the fantastic land of Valderman, a kingdom whose protectors are Heralds, men and women possessing extraordinary mental and psychic powers. Heralds are served by Companions, horse-like beings of exceptional age, ability, and sense of humor who communicate telepathically. In fact, the entire world is populated by many amusing and endearing birds and beasts, all of which contribute directly to the plot.

These books introduce the story of Princess Elspeth, Herald and heir to the throne, and Dankwind, Hawkbrother Adept, as they struggle to learn long-forgotten magics in order to defend Valderman against the Dark Adept, Mornelithe Falconsbane, a sorcerer of immense power and will. Ms. Lackey is somewhat unusual among fantasy writers in that her female characters display strength and abilities in equal measure to her male characters. This is a "must read" for lovers of fantasy.

Recycled Papers: The Essential Guide
by Claudia G. Thompson
(MIT Press, Cambridge, Massachusetts)
1992

In this age of environmental consciousness, this essential book guides designers toward making educated choices about printing papers. Designers have the capacity to shape the choices of their clients in terms of paper choice for printed materials, and this comprehensive guide covers not only recycled papers but also a history of the papermaking process as well as the pros and cons of recycling.

Dr. William DiPietro Business and Commerce

Debt & Deficit
by Robert Heilbronner
(W. W. Norton, New York, NY) 1989

Given the size of the national debt and the sharp focus on the debt during the recent presidential campaign, a book on debt by a noted economist should be appealing to the Daemen Alumni. Robert Heilbronner's book, Debt & Deficit, makes for a good introduction because it is very readable. Heilbronner explains in basic language the national debt and takes the interesting position that fear of the debt, not the debt itself, is the real problem facing Americans!

Dr. John B. Starkey History and Government

Rebuilding Russia
Reflections and Tentative Proposals
by Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn
(Farrar, Straus and Giroux, New York) 1991

A concise, concerned, rather selective one evening "get your feet wet" probe and proposal look at the 'New Russia.' Those less attracted to the author's political analyses might prefer his story telling — try One Day in the Life of Ivan Denisovich, The Love-Girl and The Innocent or Stories and Prose Poems.

Either way you are in good hands.

Reservations are on a first-come, first-served basis. There are 400 beds available on campus. To insure a place on campus, reserve early.

Library Available to Alumni

Glenn V. Woike,
Head Librarian

Keep current in your profession or read for pleasure. College library use doesn't need to end with graduation."

Ask a librarian for a Public Access Card to borrow books or come in to browse the current magazines. Search computer databases for the latest information in your field. The library has lots of children's books, too.

You are welcome to use Marian Library — one way Daemen demonstrates its concern for your life-long learning. Call us at (716) 839-8243.

Thanks To Our Alumni News Editor & Writers

The quality of the Alumni News has steadily improved with each issue that is published. This is primarily due to three of our alumnae who have volunteered their time to produce a paper worthy of our school. Debbie Hoffmann, '86, took the helm in 1991. Her innovations and careful attention to detail have made the paper what it is today. Kathy Zalocka, '64, researched and wrote our Profile Section and her sister, MaryAnn O'Connell, '57, pulled together our class news and arranged it for easy reading. Our special thanks go to these women who have donated so much of their time for their alma mater.
